Two Children Cut Off With $1—Court House News.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed today in the United States court by Charles J. Wilson, formerly the proprietor of a livery stable on South Main st.

The liabilities aggregate $3,000. The only assets are a number of accounts against old customers. In the items under this head is a bill for $4 against Charles "Kid" McCoy, the well known heavyweight pugilist. In this connection it might be said that this account is one of the oldest on the books of Mr. Wilson. The debt was contracted when McCoy was an almost unknown individual. He hired the horse to get out of town and never remitted for the same.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers cured. Issues Challenge to Ohio Lightweights.

Has Returned to Akron—May Meet Tim Hoonan.

Art Simms returned to Akron today from Chicago. He will remain in this city for some time to come. He says that the pugilistic game is very slow in Chicago at the present time, and that it is hard to get a match there with anybody of his weight. He shows no marks of his last battle with Tony Hoffman.

Simms authorized the Sporting Editor of The Democrat to issue a challenge on his behalf to any 128 or 130 pound man in Ohio. He will sign articles to meet any one before the club offering the largest purse. He is also willing to make a side bet. He is in Barborton this afternoon trying to arrange a match with Tim Hoonan. He is willing to meet the Barborton unknown at catchweights. Some time ago it was reported that Hoonan had a backer who was willing to wager $500 on him in a match with Simms.

Reports of Trial of Kentucky Conspirator—Empanelling Jury.

Georgetown, Ky., July 12.—(Spl.)—Georgetown presents a deserted appearance on the third day of the trial of Caleb Powers for alleged conspiracy in the Goebel murder. As soon as it was announced that the defense had been forced into a trial, general interest died out as it was known that several days more would elapse before the first witness would be placed on the stand. Court was called to order at 9:10 with not more than 200 in the audience. A smile passed through the crowd when, during the reading of the order, the court read the pardon issued by Governor Taylor and signed by himself as secretary of state. It is reported that the court will refuse to permit the newspapers to print the testimony. Twelve names were drawn from the jury wheel, and the examination began at 10:20. Geo. Ware was the first to be examined. W. C. Owens conducted the examination for the defense and Victor Bradley for the prosecution. Judge Cantrill ruled Ware not competent.

There is more Cataract in this section of the country than in any other disease put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven cataract to be a constitutional disease and that it requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Cataract Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

"Because You Love Me." Because you love me I have found New joys that were not mine before, New stars that lightened up my sky With gleams growing more and more. Because you love me I can rise To heights of fame and realms of power; Beyond the beauty of the dawn To the highest use of every hour. Because you love me I can choose To look through your dear eyes and see Beyond the beauty of the now Far onward to eternity. Because you love me I will wait With perfect patience well possessed; Because you love me all my life Is doted with unquestioned rest; Yes, even life and even death Is all unquestioned and all blest. —Hall Mail Magazine.

Liast's Feet of Memory. In The Century William Mason, the veteran American musician, tells of a remarkable feat of memory performed by the composer Liast.

My friend knew Liast very well, and having taken a fancy to a composition of mine, "Les Perles de Rosee," which was still in manuscript, he said: "Let me have it for publication. Dedicate it to Liast. I can easily get Liast to accept the dedication. I am going directly from here to Weimar and will see him about it. At the same time I will prepare the way for your reception later as a pupil."

Not long afterward I received a letter from my friend in which he told me that when he handed the music to Liast the latter looked at the manuscript, hummed it over, then sat down and played it from memory. Then, going to his desk, he took a pen and accepted the dedication by writing his name at the top of the title page.

Bluffs in the Directory. If you pick up that interesting annual, the city directory, you will find it filled with bluffs. Here is a man down as a superintendent. You know he is only the foreman of a labor gang. Another is designated as a general manager. Three or four men are subject to his "general" management, or, as his 5-year-old son, who inherited his propensity to bluff, put it, "he's the head man of three other fellows." Over on this page is another chap who is given as the political editor of a newspaper, as though he were a reporter assigned to gather political news, and everything he writes is carefully "edited" by another man with a title of much less importance. This man down in the book as a merchant sells shoe strings and collar buttons in a cubby hole between two buildings made available when an alley fell into disuse. "Mrs. Blaque, modiste," is merely Mrs. Blaque, dressmaker, making a French bluff for which she collects after the cutting out and fitting are done. But what is the use of picking them out? The directory is filled with them. —Pittsburg Press.

Withdrawing a Juror. One particularly amusing incident characterized Congressman Burton's early experience at the bar. For some reason it became necessary to request a continuance in a case in which he was counsel. After Mr. Burton had explained why there should be a continuance the court told him simply to withdraw a juror and the case would be marked continued. For the moment the young attorney was nonplused, but after glancing at the court to satisfy himself that the judge was in earnest he walked over to the jury box, eyed the jurors for an instant and then firmly seized a large, portly German and endeavored with no little effort to drag him out of the jury box. In the midst of the general laugh which followed, the court came to the rescue of the discomfited young barrister by explaining that the term was simply technical and need only be written on the docket.—Saturday Evening Post.

Effect of Paternal Example. Mr. Tucker, who sometimes goes gunning, was trying to teach Tommy the meaning of the word "brace" as applied to game.

"Now, Tommy," he said, "if you should go hunting and kill 20 pheasants, for instance, how many would you say you had bagged?"

"Fifty," replied Tommy. —Chicago Tribune.
